WEEKLY ACTIVITIES & STATUS REPORT FOR THE DD/ICS--24 September 1986

- To overcome a potential stumbling block and working group opposition to the term "contingency operations," the working group is considering changing it to "limited military operations." Although, the working group in several of the earlier sessions discussed definitions, the fact that the subject continually is raised indicates that a change in the title to "NFIP Support for Limited Military Operations" would be a wise course.

Intelligence as a Force Multiplier - [ ]

- Willi continues to unravel the intricacies of the RAND "IDHAEX" war game to evaluate if and how it might be extended to address the contributions of intelligence support to U.S. operating forces in NATO defense. After Willi has gleaned as much as he can from the documentation RAND has provided us, he and Tony plan to visit RAND in Santa Monica for clarification briefings and to identify what RAND could do for the Force Multiplier Study.
